CLASH WITH GERMANS

Arrogant Officers and Soldiers Provoke American Sentries to Shoot.

BAD BLOOD ON LEGATION STREET.

One Teuton Drew His Sword but Met Up With a Bayonet—His Feeling Created by American Occupation of Forbidden City.

Peking, May 27.—The United States legation guard has had its first trouble. Legation street is being repaired near the legation and an American sentry was placed at the point with orders to direct people around by a side street.

Everybody obeyed the request with the exception of the Germans, both officers and soldiers, who have caused the American sentries much trouble. One of the German officers drew his sword and charged an American soldier, who brought his bayonet to "charge," whereupon the officer desisted. Subsequently a German soldier charged past the sentry, who fired, hitting another German soldier near the German legation, a quarter of a mile off. This fortunately was only a light flesh wound. The sentry has been placed under arrest, and Major Robertson has instituted an investigation. The attitude of Dr. Mumm Von Schwartzstein, German minister, representing the civilians, and Count Von Waldersee, representing the military, as well as that of other high officials, has been particularly friendly toward the Americans, which makes all the more pronounced the unfriendly feeling evinced by a majority of the German officers and men. This unfriendliness is attributed to the American attitude in retaining control with the legation guard of the entrance to the Forbidden City, which the Germans consider a reflection upon their national honesty. At the meeting of the ministers of the powers details of business independent of the indemnity question were considered, although the military authorities of the various powers seem to consider a settlement in sight, as general preparations are being made for the evacuation of Peking in the early future.

Two German marine battalions have left for Tsing-Tau, and British transports have been ordered. Count Von Waldersee expects to leave about the middle of June.

Emperor Kwang Su has instructed agents to prepare the palaces for occupation by the court so soon as the troops depart.

Big Sunday School Class.

Lincoln, Neb., May 27.—A Sunday school class of over 4,000 was the spectacle presented at the Dunkard national conference. Following the Sunday school came preaching services in the big tabernacle, one following the other so closely as to be almost continuous throughout the day and evening. Three topics formed the themes for the main services. "The Holy Spirit," by A. H. Hutchinson, Romans 12:1-2, by H. D. Miller; "Walks About the Sea of Galilee," by J. H. Moore. In addition to the conference sermons, Dunkards occupied the pulpits in nearly all the churches morning and evening. Today the business meetings of the conference began.

Wet Sunday at the Pan.

Buffalo, May 27.—A steady downpour of rain from early morning until late at night made the Pan-American exposition grounds look like a desert city Sunday. Those who did have the courage to brave the elements spent their time in the exhibit buildings, some of which were open a part of the day, or in the temple of music, where the first organ recital was held during the afternoon. A fair-sized crowd listened to the mammoth organ, which has 4,000 pipes and 53 speaking registers.

Boers Attacked a Convoy.

London, May 27.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, May 26: "A superior force of Boers made a determined attack on a convoy between Ventersdorp and Petchefstrom, but was driven off. Our loss was four killed and 30 wounded. The convoy arrived in safety."

Soap Factory Burned.

Torrien, Mexico, May 27.—"La Union," a large soap factory controlled by Messrs. Serrano and Farjas and owned by various stockholders here and in the neighborhood, was destroyed by fire. Loss $225,000; insurance $190,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Gone But Not Forgotten.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—Charles R. Delph, formerly in the millinery business here, is said to have taken $1,150 belonging to his estate in bankruptcy and left the state.

WHIRLING HOMEWARD.

Mrs. McKinley Stands Trip Bravely. Sunday on the Train.

Ogden, Utah, May 27.—The presidential train traversed the state of Nevada Sunday and reached Ogden at night. The route lay along the Humboldt river, through the Ruby and Wasatch mountains, and then descended into the Salt Lake basin. Mrs. McKinley is standing the trip very well. She suffered no inconvenience from the rarified atmosphere. The day aboard the train was passed without incident. The president and members of the party kept to their rooms the major part of the day. At Carlin the president shook hands with some of the people who had gathered there, among them a number of Digger Indians who live in the neighborhood. On the way back to Washington the president and members of the cabinet are devoting a good deal of time to considering the Chinese situation.

Carnegie's Gifts Spurned.

London, May 27.—"We trust in Scottish pride to rise in its wrath against this invasion of the almighty dollar," says the Review of the Week commenting on Andrew Carnegie's munificence to Scotland's universities. "Many of the oldest and best families in Scotland," continues the periodical, "send their sons to Scottish universities, where they pay the fees like the sons of their humble neighbors, neither more nor less. Imagine the duke of Hamilton, Cameron of Lochiel or McDonald of the isles allowing their heir to get education at the cost of the American ironmonger. We shall next hear of some Chicago pork packer proposing to buy up Oxford and Cambridge."

Naval Station in Hawaii.

Washington, May 27.—The naval board having charge of the location of a naval station on Pearl harbor, Hawaii, has completed its work. The board adheres to the view that Pearl is the only harbor in the Hawaiian group capable of complete naval defense. It is only five miles from Honolulu. Much of the surrounding land has been occupied for commercial purposes. The board proposes to leave this shore land for commercial purposes, and if possible to locate the naval station on large islands lying in the middle of the harbor. The improvement of the harbor contemplates a deep water channel across the coral bar at the entrance, and heavy batteries on each side of the entrance.

Sara on American Girls.

Brussels, May 27.—Mme. Bernhardt, in the course of an interview at the Theater Royal de la Monnaie, where she is playing, strongly praised the American system of educating girls as compared with the continental system. "I have found the American women much superior to our women," said the actress. "She lives a different life, a life of which the French people have no idea. In America husband and wife lead an absolutely special and separate existence. The woman is intellectual in the broadest sense of the word and the husband works for her. The American girl is elegant and pretty. She marries as late as possible, which is explained by the fact that she enjoys absolute liberty."

Fraud Charged.

Montreal, May 27.—Detective O'Keefe and Mahon have arrested at Hamilton, Ont., Dan MacLeod, the wrestler, and Manager Perry on charge of conspiracy and fraud in alleged swindling of a man named Thompson out of $2,650 in the recent wrestling match here between MacLeod and Pons, the French champion. Thompson alleges that he gave the money to Perry to bet on Pons, who lost the match, but since claims to have evidence that Perry did not bet a cent, and also that he fixed the match to make it appear that Pons had really lost.

Blow to Boxing Contests.

Louisville, May 27.—As a result of Friday night's brawl after the Hart-Creedon fight, in which Dave Sullivan of New York was knocked down by Dave Husbands and the police had to quell a general mixup, Mayor Weaver has decided that he can no longer stand for the sport here, and has called the attention of the board of safety to the matter. Among the contests scheduled for the near future were bouts between Marvin Hart of Louisville and Joe Choyinski, and Dave Sullivan of New York and Terry McGovern of Brooklyn.

Chicago, May 27.—Steps are being taken by the state board of health to carry out the recommendation of the coroner's jury for the regulation of Dr. Dowle's Zion hospital. Evidence is being collected for the prosecution of John H. Sayres, one of Dowle's minions, for practicing without a license, and also Mary Cathcart, a nurse. Dowle's hospital is declared to come within the hospital regulations, and the penalty for conducting a hospital without a license is a fine of from $50 to $100.

THE DEBATE RENEWED.

Presbyterian Divines Face to Face With Majority Report on Revision.

ASSEMBLY MAY ADJOURN THURSDAY.

After the Credal Question Is Out of the Way the Proposed Judicial Commission Will Claim Attention.

Philadelphia, May 27.—The debate on the revision of the confession of faith, which took up the whole of three days last week, was resumed today, and it is believed some definite action will have been taken before the assembly adjourns for the day. Much comment has been made by the commissioners over the high character of the debate as far as it has gone. There has been a total absence of harsh feeling.

When the assembly reconvened the question for consideration was, "Shall the majority report be adopted in its entirety?" This report, briefly stated, recommended the appointment of a committee to prepare a brief summary of the reformed faith, bearing the same relation to the confession which the shorter catechism bears to the larger catechism and formed on the general model of the consensus creed prepared for the assembly of 1892, or the "articles of faith" of the Presbyterian church of England. The report also recommended that this committee prepare amendments to several chapters of the confession, either by modification of the text or by declaratory statement, or as more clearly to express the mind of the church. The motions to dismiss the whole matter and to strike out the recommendation in the majority report for a brief summary having been defeated, the contest narrowed down to a struggle between the advocates of a new creed and those who desire only a moderate revision of the confession.

It is not likely that the assembly will adjourn before Thursday. The Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts, the stated clerk, gave out the information that there will be two days' work before the assembly after the revision question is out of the way. After the present matter is disposed of the proposition of the establishment of a judicial commission will hold the attention of the assembly. Lines are sharply drawn on this matter and it may delay somewhat the final adjournment. Quite a number of commissioners have returned to their homes.

Commissioners to the general assembly again supplied nearly all of the Presbyterian pulpits and those of several other denominations in this city Sunday. Many persons took advantage of the opportunity to hear the men whose eloquence during the past week held the attention of thousands in Calvary church in the discussion upon the question of revision of the confession of faith. The leaders of the several parties that have battled for supremacy were heard in the prominent churches. Moderator Minton delivered two sermons, one in the morning at Northminster church and the other in the evening at Olivet church.

Civil Service in Hawaii.

Washington, May 27.—Chief Examiner A. R. Servon of the civil service commission left here via New York for Honolulu, where he and Civil Service Commissioner Roenberg, who will join him en route to Kansas City, will look into the civil service in Hawaii. They expect to sail from San Francisco June 6, reaching Honolulu about June 14, and during the following two weeks an opportunity will be given citizens of the United States residing in Hawaii to be examined for a number of positions in the classified service there and in Washington. Hawaii is entitled to 15 appointments in the apportioned departmental service in Washington and five in the apportioned government printing office. A number of other offices are to be filled.

Tillman vs. McLaurin.

Columbia, S. C., May 27.—As a result of their joint debate at Gaffney, Senators Tillman and McLaurin have agreed to resign and go before the people in a contest for re-election. The governor is not to appoint a successor to either during the interim. Tillman was returned to the senate a year ago and he is opposing the return of McLaurin. In the heat of the debate at Gaffney Senator Tillman said, "If you elect McLaurin I will take it as notice that you do not want me, for if he is a Democrat I am not." Tillman challenged McLaurin to resign and make a campaign before the people, and McLaurin accepted.

Milner's Title.

London, May 27.—Sir Alfred Milner, on his elevation to the peerage, which was announced, takes the title of Lord Milner of Cape Town.

STREETCAR COLLISION.

Motormen Raced For a Crossing and Paid a Frightful Penalty.

Albany, May 27.—Electric cars racing for a switch while running in opposite directions at the rate of 40 miles an hour cost five lives by a terrible collision in which over 40 prominent people were injured, some fatally and others seriously.

The scene of the accident was a point about two miles out of Greenhush, on the line of the Albany and Hudson railway. The point where the cars met on the single track was at a sharp curve, and so fast were both running, and so sudden was the collision, that the motorman had no time to put on the brakes before the southbound car had gone almost through the northbound car and hung on the edge of a high bluff, with its load of shrieking, maimed humanity. One motorman was pinioned up against the smashed front of the southbound car, both legs severed and killed instantly, while the other motorman lived but a few minutes.

Fully 120 men, women and children formed a struggling, shrieking pyramid, mixed with blood, detached portions of human bodies and the wreckage of the car.

Outs Want In.

Chicago, May 27.—Samuel Parker, foreign minister in Hawaii when Liliuokalani was on the throne, in speaking of existing conditions in the island said: "You hear about the Hawaiian or patriotic native party demanding Governor Doile's deposition. It's simply politics. The outs want to get in. They assume virtuous names, that's all. They have the legislature, but can not get over the governor's vetoes on some of the pet measures. The Porto Ricans, imported as laborers, have turned out well."

Room Full of Rattles.

Paris, Tex., May 27.—For a time the express office here was turned into a den of rattlesnakes. Two boxes of the reptiles were shipped here from San Antonio for an exhibition by snake-eaters. The express agent on entering the room found himself surrounded by the rattlers, which had escaped. The charmer picked up the snakes without fear and returned them to the boxes, although they bit him until his hands bled.

Colonel Michler Seriously Ill.

Washington, May 27.—The friends of Lieutenant Colonel Francis Michler, an aide on the staff of Lieutenant General Miles, are much disquieted at the serious turn that officer's ailment has taken. He has been sick some time and grave doubts are entertained by his physicians as to whether he will be able to survive this latest relapse, as his illness now requires the use of the most powerful heart tonic.

Six Years For Shooting.

Ripley, O., May 27.—A. O. Scholter of this place, a wealthy business and traveling man, went to Georgetown, O., and surrendered himself to the sheriff to be conveyed to the state penitentiary under sentence for six years for shooting Thomas Thompson on a street corner here in May, 1900. Thompson is a traveling salesman for a Cincinnati firm. Public sympathy is with Scholter.

Missing Man's Body Found.

Millersburg, O., May 27.—The decomposed remains of Bernard Dewitt, 70, of Nashville, O., who disappeared in November, were found near the home of Adnan Smith of Glenmont. The dead man was identified by his clothing. Death is supposed to have resulted from exposure.

Burglars Murdered a Boy.

San Francisco, May 27.—Robert Hislop, a 13-year-old boy, was murdered at his father's home by burglars, who repeatedly struck him over the head with a blunt instrument, crushing his skull. They ransacked the house and made their escape securing little of value.

Died of Hydrophobia.

Owingsville, Ky., May 27.—Mrs. John Pitts and Mrs. Haney died in agony at their homes in Morgan county of hydrophobia. Two children in the same neighborhood are expected to be attacked by rabies.

An Oklahoma Feud.

TUNNEL TIED UP TIGHT.

Central Federated Union of New York Indorsed the Strike.

PRESIDENT PALLAS WAS OVERRULED

Union Voted to Stand by the Men Who Ordered the Strike on the Rapid Transit Subway. Other Strike News.

New York, May 27.—The Central Federated Union of New York representing all of the labor organizations of the city, at its weekly meeting indorsed the rapid transit tunnel strike. According to labor leaders this will result in a complete tie-up on the subway unless the contractors accede to the demands of the striking engineers and rockdrillers. The action was taken in direct opposition to the wishes of President John J. Pallas, who has been laboring for some time to establish a friendly understanding between employers and employees.

Regardless of this, however, the union decided that the walking delegates who ordered the strike should be commended, and in the face of the fact that the union indorsed and approved an agreement which has been submitted to the subcontractors providing that all questions of wages, hours, etc., shall be decided by arbitration, the members present voted unanimously to support and approve the action of the strikers.

At Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 27.—At the beginning of the second week of the machinists' strike the situation in Philadelphia is as follows: There are 67 firms out of 150 that have gone from the 10-hour to a 9-hour day basis without a reduction in wages; thus 2,800 machinists out of 7,000 in the city are working nine hours a day; the machinists employed by 41 firms, numbering 2,000, continue on strike for a 9-hour workday; several large firms have offered compromises in reply to the union's demands, and in some cases, where their workmen did not belong to the union, the compromise was accepted; 42 firms have not been affected by the strike because their machinists are thus far insufficiently organized to make a stand with any chance of success. Strikes will probably be ordered at some of the latter class of places should the union officials deem it practicable to take such action.

Strike Declared Off.

Shamokin, Pa., May 27.—A Robertson & Co., operating the Corbin and Excelsior collieries agreed hereafter to pay their employees semi-monthly, whereupon the strike of 1,000 men and boys was declared off. The employees will resume work on Monday.

The Louisville Post is reaping its reward for its assertion of the Democratic party. A Republican Council has given it the city printing, over the Republican journal, the Commercial.

The Boers are without a ship upon the seas, without a cent of credit among the bankers of the world and deprived of every productive industry, yet they are fulfilling the threat they made when they said their conqueror must pay a price that would stagger humanity. How dearly England is paying, the world already knows.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN is reported to be organizing a bank in New York City that is to have a capital of $100,000,000, his object being to fight the Stillman "community" of banks that are enjoying the special favors of the U. S. Treasurer, Lyman J. Gage. J. Pierpont ought to be able to effect a combine with the other crowd and start a billion dollar bank.

MATTHEWSON, the star in the base ball firmament at present, is a Y. M. C. A. athlete. He does not use tobacco, eschews liquor and has a special clause in his New York contract exempting him from Sunday ball. He has not lost a game this season. Some of the "sporty" and "boozey" pitchers could learn a few points from him that would enable them to improve their present work.

HERE'S the way some of the Hanna-McKinley crowd are beginning to talk now about the Declaration of Independence:

"In discarding the Declaration of Independence we shall lose nothing of political or moral value. We shall merely drop a few glittering phrases of French sophistry and exploded sham borrowed from the agitators and pamphleteers of the Revolutionary period, and which never have and never can become a serious part of any system of political truth."

The next thing this crowd will be wanting to wipe out the Constitution entirely if it bobs up in their path of "criminal aggression."

SENATOR DEBEW is advocating a third term for McKinley. This would just suit the crowd who are running the present administration, but "there is a strong likelihood," remarks the Lexington Gazette, "that the American people will be found to differ from Senator Dewey on this issue." "Mr. McKinley," continues the Gazette, "has already been as highly honored and as generously rewarded by his predecessors in the Presidential office. He has no reason to demand more of his countrymen than they saw fit to give to even so popular a leader as Grant. There are many Americans who believe that Mr. McKinley has inaugurated a policy, that of the conquest and forcible government of alien people, which will yet destroy the American Republic itself. There would seem to be something menacing in his election for a third term on the ground that his strong hand alone could be trusted to carry out this policy. It is evident, nevertheless, that there is a movement under way which contemplates the nomination and election of Mr. McKinley in 1904. Such a development is significant. It is a leaping growth of centralization toward the principle of dynasty. The American people must be ready to administer, if necessary, a rebuke that will be remembered, even if they have forgotten the case of Gen'l. Grant."

DEBOE'S DOUBLE DEALING.
 Ex-Governor Bradley Has the Senatorial Snorer Sized Up About Night.

[Enquirer.]
 "It is probable that I will remove my residence from Lancaster to Louisville," remarked former Governor William O. Bradley, at the Grand, "and devote my entire time to the practice of the law, eschewing politics. I am not a candidate for United States Senator or any other office. I was not an applicant for the Federal Judgeship, nor was Senator Deboe authorized by me to make application, and no friend of mine asked him to do so. Deboe of his own motion put me forward, not that he wanted to see me Judge, but thought I might be in his way for Senator, and by getting me appointed he could smooth his way back to the Senate. Then some one persuaded him that I had lost out politically, and he dropped me. Yes, he made the remark that he would not go to the Philippines if I was not appointed."

Cobden McKinley.
 [Louisville Courier-Journal.]
 He is the observed of all observers. He is a wonderful advance agent of his party. He is the incarnation of all that is glittering and specious, the very embodiment of clever opportunism. A Republican of Republicans; the easy boss-primegenius among Protectionists; he is talking glibly about enlarging commerce and expanding trade, and "open doors," like a very free trader. Not a word about "foreign competition." Not a word about high tariffs making high wages. With Calhoun and McDuffie, he is everywhere exclaiming "to the sea!"

Often has the Courier-Journal predicted that this might be. Often have we declared that, with plants completed, with processes perfected, with patents, imprints and trademarks secure, the American manufacturer, seeking to cheaper production and to augment custom, would exclaim of the restrictive tariff: "Take the nasty thing away! It is a hindrance, not a help. Let us out to the world, to come and go as we please. We can meet and beat England, we can meet and beat Germany in all the neutral markets, and recover those markets that geographically belong to us. Down, down with high tariff!"

The Annual Toll of Storms.
 [Philadelphia Record.]

Conservative estimates of flood damages along the Ohio river and its affluents already run far into the millions, and it is by no means certain that the chapter of accidents has been closed. The temptation to build cities and towns on the alluvial bottom lands of a great river is too strong to be resisted, and the advantages of such a location unquestionably rise superior to consideration of risk from angry flood waters. Yet the annual toll of the storms has become so heavy that the inhabitants in the valley will be constrained to take up in earnest the question of protection from these recurring and disastrous visitations. Fire has largely been brought under subjection; why not flood?

D. G. Cooper has sold to Stephen Thacker about eighteen acres near Orangeburg, for $400 cash.

Of the personal estate of the late Cornelius Coryell, property valued at $233.96 was allotted to the widow.

Mr. James Finerty is announced today as a candidate for City Assessor. Mr. Finerty has the past year or so held a position as clerk at Mr. W. T. Cummins' grocery and is an upright and industrious young man, well qualified in every way for the position he seeks.

"Business on our breakers continues extremely quiet, owing, as heretofore reported, to light receipts and meager unsold stocks in market available. Rain was general throughout the growing sections on Tuesday, enabling considerable tobacco to be taken down. While most shippers have taken advantage of the season to a greater or less extent, this could not affect the market, though receipts and sales should pick up now.

"Prices were very well sustained on all tobaccos in dry order, and considerable activity was manifested, anything at all desirable selling readily under spirited competition.

"First-class wrapper leaf was in good request and prices were strong accordingly. Trashies in dry order are high. The market is being searched for scraps and anything available will command very stiff prices privately. Medium rough fillers, when in dry order, are higher, and tips also seem stronger. Green and nondescript grades, as well as tobaccos in doubtful condition, are discriminated against and fare but poorly.

"The buyers have been out in full force, notwithstanding the light sales, but the shipping element has not been so well represented. Farmers have been too busy plowing and otherwise preparing for the planting of another crop.

"Reports from the growing sections agree that plants are very late. Damage by cut worms and other insects has been pretty general, and in some counties the loss seems to be serious. It is believed, however, that the worst of the trouble with the worms is now over. The rains of the week were badly needed, and will doubtless do much good, but warmer weather than has been prevailing in most sections is also an essential for the proper growth of plants, and it must be immediately forthcoming if plants are to be ready in any quantity in season even for late planting. Altogether, the outlook just now is not promising.

"The twenty-six hds. old offered averaged $7.28 per 100 lbs., as against $6.93 for the thirty-nine hds. for the previous week, and $9.68 for the 296 hds. for the corresponding week of last year.

"The 620 hds. new offered averaged $6.21 per 100 lbs., as against $5.03 for the 681 hds. for the previous week, and $6.43 for the 498 hds. for the corresponding week of last year."

ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Will Likely be Constructed Up the Ohio Bank From Cincinnati to Portsmouth.

The Commercial-Tribune has the following relating to an enterprise which may prove an important one to Maysville and Aberdeen:

"Another, and a substantial, organization under the name of the Ohio Valley Interurban Railway Company has been formed in this city, and with practical and experienced railroad men at the helm. The intention is to enter Cincinnati via the prosed Delta avenue viaduct, thence into the city by independent lines, and in opposition to the Traction Company. Large capital is backing the company. John Kilgour, of the Cincinnati Street Railroad Company, is interested in it, and the Franklin bank knows about its financing."

It is the intention of the new company to have a terminus in Eggleston avenue, at a point near the corner of Culvert street. An option on ground for terminal facilities has been acquired in the neighborhood, and a big stone yard, conveyed to the Ohio Valley Company, will furnish the site for terminal and for stations and depots.

The company will do a general freight and passenger business, the former being done during the hours of night. Parties known to be interested in the new company preserve an air of secrecy when approached on the subject, but enough is known to warrant the statement that it will reach as far east as Portsmouth, with extensions north and east as business justifies. It will be a competitor of the Traction Company within the city limits for passengers, with rates of fare reported lower than that company."

MURPHY, the jeweler.

An excursionist on the C. and O. train, en route to Huntington Sunday morning, had a narrow escape from death. He left the train when it stopped at Market street, and during his absence the train pulled out. He made an effort to catch on and the timely assistance of his companions was all that saved him from being ground to pieces. He was dragged for some distance before they succeeded in landing him safely.

A LONG-NEEDED IMPROVEMENT.

Work Commenced at Last on the Construction of Sidewalk on West Second Street.

Street Commissioner Ben Smith with a force of hands began work this morning laying a stretch of 474 feet of pavement just east of the old gas works in the First ward. This piece of work will require about 12,000 brick, which were put on the ground Saturday, and it is a sure indication that Council means business at last.

While the First Ward Sidewalk Improvement Society claims a share of the credit for bringing this about, it wishes it understood that some of the Councilmen were just as eager to have the improvement made. In fact the people down that way are so elated over the outcome of this matter that they have prevailed upon President Hechinger, of the society, to return thanks to our City Fathers and apologize for the many harsh criticisms of the past. His speech is now in course of preparation, and the gestures accompanying it, which are said to be exceedingly rich, are being diligently practiced. Look for an oratorical treat at the Council Chamber next Monday night.

A large audience was present at the Christian Church last evening to hear the memorial sermon to Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., by the minister, Howard T. Cree. "Paul's Conception of Life," was the subject, and the discourse was an unusually eloquent and inspiring one. The sermon was to be delivered at Dieterich's Grove in the afternoon, but was postponed on account of the cool and inclement weather.

The receipts of the Christian Church extension fund since October 1 last have been $40,912.22, exclusive of $7,000 in interest on loans. Gerould estate, and an annuity of $3,000. The home mission receipts for the second week in May were $3,805.70, a gain of $382.12 over the same week last year. It is expected that 4,000 schools will observe Children's Day this year and that the receipts will be at least $50,000.

GREAT CARE

Required of Persons Using Electricity for Any Purpose.

In a recent decision the Kentucky Court of Appeals laid down this as the law:

Persons using electricity either for lighting or for propelling cars or other business must exercise the highest degree of care for the protection of all persons in all places where such persons have a right to be; and in an action for damages for injuries sustained, as alleged, by reason of the victim coming in contact with a "live wire," an instruction which defined the care to be used by the person using the wire in the operation of his business as such is exercised by persons of ordinarily prudent habits placed under like circumstances was erroneous.

An instruction defining gross negligence as that which indicates an intentional wrong or such a reckless disregard of security and right as to imply bad faith is erroneous; the correct definition being the failure to take such care as a person of common sense and reasonable skill in avoiding injury to his own person or life under circumstances of equal or similar danger to those which may be under investigation.

It is immaterial as to the ownership of the live wire from which the injured person receives the current of electricity, and it is for the jury to determine whether or not the operator of the street car line from whose wires and poles the live wire was hanging was guilty of negligence in permitting the same to hang down within the reach of persons passing that way, and in not properly insulating the wires used in the operation of the car line, if in fact there was defective insulation.

Grind less—

You will get more satisfaction from a cupful of Arbuckles' Coffee than from other coffees—and more cupfuls to the pound. Arbuckles' is not only better than many coffees that cost more, but is actually cheaper to use than the coffees that sell for a cent less per pound. Not another firm in the whole world can buy coffee to better advantage than the producers of

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee

No other coffee (not even the fancy-priced) is cleansed, roasted, blended and packed with greater care or more skill. Buy Arbuckles' Coffee and get better quality and greater value than you could get in any other coffee at anywhere near the same price.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you buy a definite part of some useful article (see list which each package contains). The article is yours whenever you present a certain number of signatures from the wrappers at our Notion Dept. Look for the list.
